Rule 204. The board adopts the NCARB architectural registration examination (ARE) as the acceptable examination for licensure, as required by MCL 339. 2004 (1)(b).

History: 2006 AACS.

PART 3. LICENSURE, RECIPROCITY, AND RENEWAL

R 339.15301 Licensure; seal design, replacement, use, validation, and submittal to board.

Rule 301. (1) After meeting the licensing requirements prescribed by the act and these rules, an applicant shall be licensed by the department according to the act.

(2) The seal of an architect as required by the act shall have the following design:

No other design for a seal shall be used. An embossed seal or rubber stamp from 4 to 5 centimeters in diameter may be used.

(3) A licensee acquiring a new replacement seal shall file an imprint of the seal with the department, and the licensee may be required to do so thereafter upon request by the department.

(4) A licensee's seal shall be used by the licensee whose name appears thereon for so long as the license remains in effect. A licensee shall be responsible for the security of the licensee's seal.

(5) A licensee shall validate personal use of the seal by placing the original signature of the licensee adjacent to each seal impression or stamping.

History: 1985 AACCS.

R 339.15302 Licensure by reciprocity; evidence of eligibility required; application; current certificate.

Rule 302. An applicant is eligible for licensure by reciprocity if the applicant holds a current valid certificate of licensure or registration as an architect issued by a board of another state or jurisdiction and submits verification of education and professional experience as required by the act and these rules, or submits a current certificate from the national council of architectural registration boards attesting to the attainment of required education, experience, and state board examinations, which shall be evidence for evaluation of the applicant's qualifications for licensure. An applicant shall be acceptable for licensure by reciprocity who holds a current, valid license in another state and who met Michigan requirements at the time of initial registration in that state.

PART 4. STANDARDS OF PRACTICE AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

R 339.15401 Standard of care and competence; responsibility for complying with building laws and regulations; professional services.

Rule 401. (1) In practicing architecture, an architect shall act with reasonable care and competence and shall apply the technical knowledge and skill which is ordinarily applied by architects of good standing who practice in the same or similar locality.

(2) In designing a project, an architect shall take into account all applicable state and municipal building laws and regulations. While an architect may rely on the advice of other professionals, such as attorneys, engineers, or other qualified persons, as to the intent and meaning of such laws and regulations, an architect shall not knowingly design a project in violation of such laws and regulations.

(3) An architect shall undertake to perform professional services only when he or she, together with those whom the architect may engage as consultants, is qualified by education, training, and experience in the specific technical areas involved.

(4) Professional services shall be offered and performed as follows:

(a) A licensee shall undertake to participate only in those phases of a project in which the licensee is competent by education, training, and experience. In the areas of a project involving professional engineering or land surveying in which the licensee lacks competence, the licensee shall retain licensed or registered professional associates for those phases of that project.

(b) An architect shall not sign or affix a seal as architect to any plans, specifications, drawings, or other related documents or work products which were not prepared by the licensee or under the licensee's direction and supervision.

History: 1985 AACS.

R 339.15402 Compensation; disclosure of business association or financial interest; contract decision.

Rule 402. (1) An architect shall not accept compensation for services from more than 1 party on a project, unless the circumstances are fully disclosed in writing and are agreed to in writing by all interested parties.

(2) If acting as the interpreter of building contract documents and the judge of contract performance, an architect shall render decisions impartially.

History: 1985 AACS.

R 339.15403 Public statements; representation of qualifications; misrepresentation of work responsibility; reporting violations of rules.

Rule 403. (1) An architect making public statements on architectural questions shall disclose when he or she is being compensated for making such statements.

(2) An architect shall accurately represent to a prospective or existing client or employer his or her qualifications.

(3) An architect shall not misrepresent the degree of responsibility in connection with work for which he or she is claiming credit to a client, potential client, or the public.

(4) An architect shall report a violation of these rules by another architect to the board.

History: 1985 AACs.
