Fall Is In The Air...

And so is planning for 2013 Programs. Last week the Beaubien House hosted the Fellows and the Health Facilities Planning Committee for their respective meetings. Having these different groups around to catch-up, exchange ideas and witness them update and reinvigorate their efforts inspires more creativity in the staff here as well. If this week has been any bit of an indicator, I am looking forward to our 2013 programs and activities already! If your committee would like to use the Beaubien House for a meeting, please contact me. And remember that you are welcome to stop by for a tour, or just to say "hi" anytime!
