

AIA
Michigan

Lunch & Learn
Review changes to the
Michigan Lien Law
February 7th, Grand Rapids, MI

REGISTER ONLINE TODAY!
DOWNLOAD REGISTRATION FORM

What?

Lunch and Learn on Michigan Senate Bill 465. Learn how this law will affect the profession.

SB 465 is a bill that allows architects and engineers to file liens against property for unpaid professional fees without the requirement that some construction must occur on the the project.

AIA Members/Associates - FREE to attend (registration does not include lunch)

Non-Members - $20.00 (registration does not include lunch)

Lunch - $12.00 box lunch

Speaker?

Gary Quesada, JD, Hon. Aff. AIAMI
Cavanagh | Quesada, PLC

Mr. Quesada has been practicing law since 1993 and is admitted to all Michigan Courts, and the U.S. District Courts of Michigan. His practice has been concentrated in the design and construction industries, representing architects, engineers, contractors, private construction owners, and public entities. Mr. Quesada represents clients in business

Where?

Kendall College of Art of Design
Woodbridge N. Ferris Building
17 Fountain Street, NW, Grand Rapids
Room 217

See what's happening on our social sites:

